JDW:Further ref your counsel on Williams. Reread as I filed.
He recognizes merits case, problems. JL has talked to a few lawyer friends. They are surprised that the offer would be as high as $5,000. Wms winced in talking to JL on the size of the out-of-court settlement I got after (undenied) he'd let the statute run. It is his recognition and the fact that there is no defense against letting the statute run that makes his forcing us to court hard to compehend even if he is uninsured. I think even the Complaint on file can hurt him so much more than the tax-deductible amount he offered. HW 2/3/75
